

EPISODE 109 CHEAT SHEET

How to Conjugate "Faire" (To Do, Make) in French

109 How to Conjugate "Faire" in French (Future)

FAIRE (SIMPLE FUTURE)

- je ferai (I will do / I will make)
- tu feras (you will do / you will make, singular informal)
- il fera (he will make)
- elle fera (she will make)
- on fera (we will make, informal)
- nous ferons (we will make)
- vous ferez (you will make, plural or singular formal)
- ils feront (they will make, masculine)
- elles feront (they will make, feminine)

EXAMPLES

- Je ferai mes devoirs plus tard. (I'll do my homework later.) 📖
- Qu'est-ce que tu feras demain soir ? (What will you do tomorrow night?)
- Il/elle fera des crêpes pour le goûter. (He / She will make crepes for afternoon tea.) 🥞

- On fera le ménage le week-end prochain.* (We will clean up next weekend.) 🚗
- Nous ferons attention sur la route.* (We'll be careful on the road.)
- Est-ce que vous ferez les courses aujourd'hui ? (Will you do the grocery shopping today?) 🛒
- Ils/elles feront de la randonnée pendant leurs vacances.* (They will go hiking during their vacation.)

Some French expressions use the verb "faire" in French, even if "to do, to make" is not the verb used in the English translation.

Examples:

- "faire le ménage" = to clean up
- "faire attention" = to be careful
- "faire de la randonnée" = to go hiking

Ready to practice?

Join the French Made Easy Library!

Weekly exercises to practice what you've learned from the French Made Easy podcast lessons!

GET ACCESS NOW >

made easy
French ✨